We returned the next fall as sophomores, feeling much more mature and experienced and forgetting all the unpleasant experiences of the past year. Returning once again as juniors, we worked hard to excel in everything we undertook. Our magazine sales exceeded their goal and reached an all time high. We then ordered our class rings and presented a very successful play, "The Ghoul Friend". A perfect climax was attained when our prom, "Underwater Magic," which included a dance, movie, and breakfast, was considered a complete success.

Finally, we had obtained the title of seniors. With Homecoming over and our float made; our goal, now, was sufficient funds to provide us with a senior trip. We worked on concessions, sponsored a soup supper, and a Good Guy basketball game, sold delicious candy, and the boys even assembled lockers. Senior pictures were taken and received, announcements ordered, caps and gowns rented, and the senior play presented. Also, a marvelous and fun-packed St. Louis trip will always be remembered by all.

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

One hundred two seniors left Rockridge at 12:01 a.m. on May 26 for an exciting two-day fling in St. Louis. After arriving at the Midtown Holiday Inn, the morning was used up for unpacking, eating, shopping, and sight-seeing. That evening we had an enjoyable meal aboard the River Queen, a river boat converted into a restaurant, museum, and cocktail lounge. That afternoon we were taken on a tour of Grant's farm, now the home of Anheiser Busch.

The following day, we took a cruise up the Mississippi on the excursion boat, Huck Finn. The remainder of the day was spent at the hotel swimming and having fun. Upon returning to Rockridge at 11:30 p.m. on May 27, the exhausted Seniors eagerly looked forward to baccalaureate and semester tests.

"TERROR IN THE SUBURBS"

The junior class of Rockridge is proud of the success of its play, "Terror in the Suburbs." This three-act mystery comedy held the attention of the audience as innocent people, sinister action, and an insane woman became entangled in a plot of suspense and humor.

After the last performance, joy swept the cast and stage crew, but tears filled several eyes at the thought of the fun-filled practices and exciting play experiences which came to a close for another year.

A special thanks goes to Miss Lawson, who worked patiently with us to make this production a huge success.

MR. CO-ED

The Senior Class presented "Mr. Co-Ed," a three-act farce comedy, on April 21 and 22.

The continuance of Cedar Hill, a college for women only, depended upon the money to be received from Mrs. Colgate Brewster, grandmother to Lotus Smith. The excitement mounts and fun begins when Lotus or "Mr. Co-Ed" turns out to be a BOY not a girl, and he is persuaded to masquerade as a girl for the good of Cedar Hill.

A special thanks goes to our director, Miss Ramona Lawson, who has worked long and patiently with us not only toward the success of our play but as our senior class advisor.

"SWEETHEART SWIRL"

The theme of this year's annual Tri-G sponsored winter dance was "Sweetheart Swirl," held on the evening of February 25th. Decorations of red and white hearts and streamers, plus music provided by the Paul Adkins Band, created a romantic atmosphere.

Reigning over this year's dance was Queen Margo Whiteside, crowned by last year's Queen, Kristin Kelly, assisted by crown-bearers Kim Matlick and Roger Curry. Attendants to the queen were Stephanie Crompton and Cyndy Carlson. Also, a royal court composed of deserving seniors consisted of Janalee Hessman, Mike Van Wychen, Vicki Scott, Carroll Parchert, Mary Paulsen, and Tom Bivens.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Presidents of the Junior and Senior Classes with their dates.

Entertainment provided by the "Polyvons"

On the evening of May 20, the Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Clayton House in Davenport. "Moonlight and Roses," the setting and theme this year, provided a romantic atmosphere. Simple decorations of mint green and white and a floral display of white roses and carnations were enjoyed by soft candlelight.

A delicious buffet-style banquet was just the beginning of a wonderful evening. There was after-dinner music by a singing group the "Polyvons", and music to dance to by the Apwood Band.

We, the Senior Class, would like to thank the Juniors for the work and time they spent to make this evening one that will long be remembered.

Due to graduation and injuries to key players, Rockridge slipped to a 5th place finish with a 2-4-1 record. The season, however, was not a complete disappointment. The Rockets did avenge last years only conference loss by beating arch-rival Sherrard 19-0. Also, note that Rockridge was the only team that was not beaten by the Conference Champions, Orion. Inspired by "Dad's Night," the Rockets fought to a 14-14 tie.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

Starting the season with very few experienced sophomores and many willing freshmen, Mr. McKnight's young Rockets finished with a 2-4-1 record. Because of the improvement of these eager, young freshmen, it is likely that a fine winning record will appear in the seasons to come.

This year's activities included the Homecoming Dance, Winter Carnival, Sweetheart Dance, and Show of the Year.

This creative organization of girls has a fine reputation to match its membership.

Tri-G's contribution to the school this year was the placement of shrubbery by the school monument.

STUDENT LIBRARIANS

The Student Librarians deserve a big THANKS from all the students at R.H.S. This year the librarian's big project was a book fair. For one week students flocked to the library to order books and goof off. Although few people show it, the work of the librarians is really appreciated.

Fred Whiteside, President of the Board of Education, awards diploma to Dean Marple.

Mr. Millard G. Roberts

Mr. Smith, represent the Class of 1967 to the Board of Education

This year's class of 108 seniors, the largest class ever graduated from Rockridge, began the first of the final steps of graduation at Baccalaureate on Sunday, May 28, with Rev. Robert O. Williams giving an address entitled "What in the World is Worth It?" Commencement was held the following Friday evening, June 2, at 8:15 p.m.

Mr. Millard G. Roberts, President of Parsons College, gave a commencement address entitled "What About Tomorrow?" He brought forth many interesting and enlightening facts.

In Memoriam

We, the 1967 Tempus Fugit staff, dedicate this page in memory of our beloved classmate, Dallas Anderson. No one can be really appreciated until they are no longer with us. Moments enjoyed, jokes exchanged, and memories kept, all become treasured fragments which remain long afterward. Although Dallas was fairly new at Rockridge, his respected character and cooperative attitude made him an asset to the group.

Our deepest sympathy goes to his family, especially to his sister, Connie.

CLASS

OF 1967

We, the Editors, hope that this edition of TEMPUS FUGIT will be a source of pleasure and remembrance for years to come. We have tried to give an adequate and vivid account of the past year of school at Rockridge High. Next year it will be changed--in size, students, appearance, and faculty; but we are sure the spirit of our school will remain through the years.

We would like to thank the staff and Miss Lawson, for without their help, we could not have accomplished the task of completing this book. Good Luck in years to come.

The Editors
